

District One Trustee

Candidate Name: Tim Wheeler

Tim Wheeler grew up on a dairy farm in Sequim and graduated from Sequim High in 1958. He graduated from Amherst College in 1964. He and his wife Joyce moved east in 1967 when he became a staff writer for the Worker and later Washington correspondent for the Daily World.

Tim and Joyce raised three children in Baltimore. They returned to Sequim after retirement in 2006 and became active members of the Clallam County Democratic Party doorbelling for Democratic candidates local, state, and national, including President Barack Obama, and President Elect, Joe Biden and running mate, Kamala Harris.

Tim has written two books, News From Rain Shadow Country and News For the 99% based on his childhood and youth here and the stories he has written since.

He currently serves as a District -1 Trustee, living in the Cline precinct.

